

Whereas: The PSAC has a long history of being on the vanguard of social justice advocacy, and

Whereas: The PSAC has been educating the membership about the threat to workers and their families due to globalization and transnational corporations; and

Whereas: The YEU is a union where its own Mission Statement and Vision are

“Respect and Dignity, Equality and Fairness and breaking new trail for workers’ rights and social justice”; and

Whereas: The Occupy movement is a global social justice movement that has at its core these very same values,

Therefore: Be it Resolved that the YEU issue the following public statement:

The Yukon Employees’ Union is in full support of the Occupy movement representing the 99% across the globe.

The Yukon Employees’ Union shares the values of equality, justice and fair democracy advocated by the Occupy movement.

The Yukon Employees’ Union stands in solidarity with Occupiers around the world to express a feeling of mass injustice; we must not lose sight of what brought us together. We write so that all people who feel wronged by the corporate forces of the world can know that we are your allies.
