

In memory of Marianne Elizabeth MacKinnon

April 1, 1959—October 29, 2006

Marianne MacKinnon passed away in Ottawa after a short battle with cancer.

Marianne lived in the Yukon for more than twenty years – moving to Ottawa after she met the love of her life, Brother John Baglow.

She was employed by the Yukon government in the Finance Office.

A committed trade unionist, she served as President of the Yukon Federation of Labour, Treasurer of the Yukon Employees' Union and on the PSAC's Regional Women's Committee.

She was a member of the Canadian Rangers in the Yukon and took part in many exercises in Northern Canada.

Marianne leaves behind her son and daughter, Danny and Rory, her partner John, family members in the Yukon, New Zealand and Australia, and many, many friends, colleagues and sisters and brothers in the union.

A celebration of Marianne's life will be held on November 24, 2006 at the Labyrinth Room at First United Church, 397 Kent Street, Ottawa, at 1:00 p.m.

Messages can be sent to the family, care of John Baglow, 53 Simcoe Street, Ottawa Ontario, K1S 1A3
