YUKON GOVERNMENT WORKERS RATIFY TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

(WHITEHORSE, Yukon) – Members of the Yukon Employees' Union (YEU) have accepted their Bargaining Team's recommendation, and voted in favour of the tentative agreement reached between YEU/PSAC and the Government of Yukon. Ballots were counted on Saturday, May 15, after a week of voting.

The new Collective Agreement will be in force for three years from January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2012. Pay increases are retroactive to January 1, 2010. Other provisions of the new agreement are effective as of the May 17, 2010, date of ratification.
